

192 Davistown Road YATTALUNGA NSW

Build your dream home and take advantage of the fabulous view afforded from this land. Concept plans have already been drawn up for a stunning executive contemporary residence. The design utilises the natural fall of the site to maximise the number of rooms which can take in the view & can be achieved with minimal excavation. The site has been fully optimised in order to achieve a high level of amenity, quality of space and great opportunity for indoor/outdoor living to soak up the views, natural breezes and abundance of light. Use the existing concept or your own but don't miss this rare opportunity.
